

Earning the ASP® Designation!

You can hire an ASP® Home Stager with confidence because...

- Accredited Staging Professionals® have successfully attended and graduated from the ASP® course and have passed a required thorough examination on preparing homes for sale to earn the Accredited Staging Professional® designation;
- ASPs® must also pass a detailed written class examination created by Barb Schwarz, the Creator/Founder of Home Staging;
- Accredited Staging Professionals® are committed to the principles and practices of marketing properties as Staged® Homes;
- Through their membership and participation in the International Association of Home Staging Professionals (IAHSP®), ASPs® are held to the professional ethical standards of the IAHSP Staging Code of Ethics;
- ASPs® are required to:
 - Annually renew their detailed ASP® license agreement of membership with Stagedhomes.com, the World's Leader in Home Staging Education;
 - Agree to and uphold the ASP® Code of Ethics and ASP® Consumer Foundation of Service Creed;
 - Obtain a business license for their ASP® Staging business as an ASP® Stager and a real estate license if they are an ASP® Real Estate Agent;
 - Acquire staging insurance as an ASP® Stager;
 - Obtain a sales tax ID# in the state where they work as an ASP® Stager;
 - Open a commercial checking account for their Staging business;
 - Continue their education by taking additional ASP® Courses to stay up to date in the Home Staging Industry and their ASP® designation;
 - Hold a current/active membership in the International Association of Home Staging Professionals (IAHSP).
